Quilt Exhibit

Presented by

African American Quilters of Los Angeles

Saturday, May 18, 2013
10:00 AM – 3:00 PM

The mission of the AAQLA is to increase personal and public awareness and knowledge to support the expression of African-American quilting and to bring awareness of the historical value of African-American quilts.

The Black Resource Center and AC Bilbrew Library are the proud sponsors of this event.

For ADA accommodation, such as a sign language interpreter or materials in an alternate format, call 562-940-8462 (voice) or 562-940-8477 (TTY), M-F, 8-5, at least six days prior to event.
